

Customized nose pads

- for all types of masks

At DAFA, we develop, manufacture and supply nose pads for masks in close cooperation with our customers. Our years of experience within the industry, combined with our broad range of solutions for masks, make us a trusted and versatile partner

DAFA's advanced technology and material knowledge makes us a versatile partner

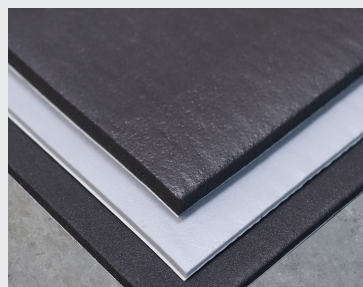

Learn more about our competences within 3D scanning here

In-house 3D scanning - for analyzing and reconstructing products digitally.

DAFA can design custom nose pads for all types of face masks. Our advanced technology enables us to efficiently and precisely construct the desired pad, which applies to our customers' manufacturing process.

DAFA draws upon extensive experience when it comes to advising customers in their choice of materials. The materials we use are always altered to fit the customers' needs in terms of comfort, hygiene, and durability.

